56th National Farm Machinery Show Accepting New Exhibitor Applications on April 30

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (April 29, 2021) — The National Farm Machinery Show will begin accepting online applications for new exhibitors Friday, April 30 at 9 a.m. EST. Applicants will be added to the exhibitor waitlist and be informed if potential space is available.

Exhibitors that participated in the 2020 National Farm Machinery Show have their space automatically reserved for the 2022 show. Information regarding contract renewals, attendee registration and media credentials will be announced in late-May.

“This past year has been challenging as well as a learning experience for the entire agriculture industry and we look forward to bringing together everyone including farmers and equipment manufactures for the most complete show to date.” said President and CEO of Kentucky Venues David S. Beck. Kentucky Venues manages and operates the Kentucky Exposition Center as well as the National Farm Machinery Show.

The National Farm Machinery Show is held annually at the Kentucky Exposition Center and is the largest indoor farm show in the country featuring 1.2 million square feet of exhibit space. The show is a key player in the agriculture industry, featuring the most comprehensive display of equipment, services and technology. Top brands unveil the latest models of tractors, combines and technological advances made each year.

Additionally, the Championship Tractor Pull will return to Freedom Hall. Held in conjunction with the National Farm Machinery Show, the Championship Tractor Pull attracts participants and viewers from around the world for a four-day adrenaline-pumping event. Driver application and ticket information will be available in the fall.

The new exhibitor application form will be posted at farmmachineryshow.org/waitlist-application.

The National Farm Machinery will take place February 16-19, 2022 at the Kentucky Exposition Center. For more information about the show, visit farmmachineryshow.org.
