Free Seminars Offered at the National Farm Machinery Show

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (February 6, 2020) — Farmers and agribusiness professionals flock to Louisville each February to learn about the latest innovations in farming. Free seminars offered at the National Farm Machinery Show will showcase new products, strategies and technologies to interested guests. The seminars are open to all attendees Wednesday through Saturday, Feb. 12-15 in the South Wing of the Kentucky Exposition Center.

This year's seminars include:

- 2020 Market and Weather Outlook presented by DTN/The Progressive Farmer
- How Technology Can Change Your Farm presented by Ag Leader
- Material Handling and Livestock presented by Farm Futures
- Herbicide Systems presented by Beck's Hybrids
- The Connected Farm and the Value of Autonomy presented by the National Farm Machinery Show
- Machinery Pete Updates on the Used Machinery Market presented by Farm Journal Media

Farm Journal Media will host a live taping for "U.S. Farm Report" hosted by Tyne Morgan with special guests on Thursday, February 13 at 2 p.m. in South Wing B, room 105.

Admission to the National Farm Machinery Show is free and open to the public. Pre-register for the National Farm Machinery Show online at cvent.me/VNmbKm to save time and be entered into raffles for farming products. Parking at the exposition center is $10 per vehicle and $20 per bus.
